

City of Lafayette Priority Conservation Areas

The Association of Bay Area Governments, Metropolitan Transportation Commission, Bay Area Air Quality Management District, and the Bay Conservation and Development Commission designated Burton Ridge and Lafayette Ridge as Priority Conservation Areas ("PCA"), as part of their regional planning initiative called FOCUS, short for Focusing our Vision. PCAs must have regional significance, broad community support and an urgent need for protection. The PCA designation does not guarantee protection.

For more information, please visit the online showcase at: <http://www.bayareavision.org/pca/contra-costal/>