“Stay Home. Save Lives. Check In.”

Hotline: 1- 833-544-2374

Statewide campaign urging Californians to help combat social isolation and food insecurity among Californians who are over the age of 65 – a community that is uniquely vulnerable to COVID-19. In coordination with the non-profit local 2-1-1 systems, Californians can call to have their questions answered and get assistance during this crisis. For example, the 2-1-1 system is able to help older Californians access grocery and medication delivery while staying at home.

TELEPHONE AND ONLINE REASSURANCE PROGRAMS

Friendship Line California The State is expanding the Friendship Line California to serve as a resource to provide emotional support to older Californians experiencing loneliness, isolation, and anxiety. (888) 670-1360

Well Connected Phone and online program offering activities, education, friendly conversation, and an assortment of classes and support groups for older adults accessible from the comfort of home. The community consists of participants, staff, facilitators, presenters, and other volunteers who care about each other, and who value being connected to engaging content, and to each other. Well Connected members can play a game, learn a language, write a poem, go on a virtual tour, meditate, share a gratitude, get support, and most importantly, connect and engage with others every day across the country. All groups are accessible by phone or online. Well Connected is a Community Service of Covia and is free of charge to all participants and available to adults over the age of 60. Click here to view the catalog of interest groups. To get started: (877) 797-7299 or coviaconnections@covia.org

Social Call As part of its commitment to fostering community, Covia's free Social Call program matches fully vetted, trained volunteers with individuals over the age of 60 in need of one-to-one compassionate conversation and care via the telephone. (877) 797-7299 or coviaconnections@covia.org

TeleCare A daily reassurance call to those who are housebound, for the health and welfare of the client, as well as for a friendly chat and exchange of ideas. Trained volunteers call clients Monday through Friday mornings, beginning at 9 am. Contact Assistance League of Diablo Valley (925) 934-0901

Friendly Visitor - Telephone Reassurance through Meals on Wheels Diablo Region - A growing number of seniors are isolated and can't visit their friends and family as much as they used to, especially those who don't drive. If you or a family member would enjoy some company, sign up for the Telephone Reassurance Program. They match older adults with a volunteer who will call to provide contact and safety checks to support older individuals. Call (925) 937- 8311 or email info@mowdr.org.

The Friendship Line - Institute on Aging The Friendship Line can be a much-needed support service to aging adults at this time for those who need a connection or a listening ear. Accredited crisis intervention program for older and disabled adults; provides emotional support, reassurance, elder abuse prevention, and information and referral.
