

Plants in Hamlin Nature Park (Not a Complete List)

Native Plants

Dutchman's Pipe Vine (Aristolochia californica)

Look closely at blossom

Sanicle (Sanicula sp.)

Miners Lettuce (Claytonia perfoliata) – Edible

Mug Wart (Artemisia douglasiana)

Very Fragrant

Wild Cucumber (Marah fabacea)

Coyote Brush or Greasewood

(Baccharis pilularis)

Very common; large bush

Poison Oak
(Toxicodendron diversilobum)

Soaproot
(Chlorogalum pomeridianum)

Plants in Hamlin Nature Park (Not a Complete List)

Native Trees

Buckeye (Aesculus californica)

A baby and a nut and tunnel

California Bay
(Umbellularia californica)

Blooming

Oaks including Black, Valley and Live (Quercus sp.)

Black Walnut
(Juglans hindsii)

Non-Native Invasive (These plants displace the native plants.)

Bermuda Buttercup (Oxalis pes-caprae)

May be pretty, but...

Scotch Broom (Cytisus scoparius)

Nice yellow flowers in spring, but...

Artichoke Thistle (Cynara cadunculus)

Don't mistake for the edible ones.

This list is just a sample of the plants that can be identified on the Hamlin Nature Park parkland. Please consider looking up these plants on your phone to see additional images. Enjoy your time at the Hamlin Nature Park Batwing property.